IV. Answer the following:

1. What is History? Why do we study History?

Ans: History is the story of the past. It tells us about the people who lived long ago. For example, rulers, leaders, saints, painters, musician and so on. It also tells us about the things people have done for example, the first toys that people made, and the first cities that they built. The inventions and the discoveries, the battles and so on. Some important event also like satyagrahas led by Mahatma Gandhi and India's struggle for freedom.

We study history to learn about lives of great people like Gautama Buddha, Mirabai, and Mahatma Gandhi etc. Also, to learn about the lives of common people and how they lived e.g. the food they ate, clothes they wore and the kind of work they did etc. To learn about other countries too not just ours.

2. What are the three periods of History? Explain any one.

Ans: The three periods of history are:

1. The Ancient Period
2. The Medieval Period
3. The Modern Period

The Medieval period lies between the Ancient and the Modern period. Hence, it is also called the Middle period. Each period lasted for hundreds of years.
